

Market Harborough swimming club hosted a very enjoyable and successful annual awards presentation afternoon hosted at the town's football club. The club's honorary president David Lander acted as master of ceremonies with awards presented by Head Coach Ian Johnston. The Julie Hiner memorial cup, awarded to the club member who has helped significantly throughout the year, was presented to Rhianna Cook. The David Wilkie best all round club member award went to Henry Ingram, whilst the Anthony Shepherd memorial trophy was won by Jay Newman. Ben Wellicome was the proud recipient of the Diddy Managers discretionary cup for endeavour and grit. Club captains Alice Boyd and Harry Waddington, along with Diddy captains Charlie Poole and Ellie Johnson also received commemorative awards.

Waddington proceeded to thank the committee, officials and numerous helpers that make it possible to run a successful swimming club, on behalf of the swimmers, before presenting some fun alternative awards, based upon incidents that occurred the previous season.
